CHILDRENS DAY

We wanted to remind everyone that May 5th is Childrens Day (Kodomo no hi). On this holiday, children are respected and honored for their strengths and happiness is wished upon them. Celebrate by flying Koinobori to bring luck and good fortune to our children.

SENIOR WELLNESS

On Wednesday, our seniors celebrated Childrens Day by creating Koinobori. Koinobori is carp windsocks, carp streamers or carp banners that decorate the landscape of Japan. The Koinobori is displayed from April through early May to honor Childrens Day. The koi carp is believed to be a symbol of luck, prosperity and good fortune within Japan.
